COMMUNICATIONS

April 2022

What's the latest news?

Security Role Summaries:

The FST team is reviewing security role mapping submissions to ensure streamlining and efficacy, and will communicate any adjustments before go-live. New Security Role Summaries provide snapshots of responsibilities and access and more information is available here.

Oracle to Workday

Crosswalk: A crosswalk of Oracle terms to their new terms in Workday Financials has been developed. This crosswalk should be a helpful bridge between the current state and the future state. The term site can be accessed here.

FST Fridays: The UVA community can get an inside look at Workday Finance before training begins in May at FST Friday sessions. Sessions cover common business transactions related to the FDM, buying and paying, expense reports, and more. The schedule, slides, and session recordings are available here.
