What's the latest news?

End-to-End Testing: Testing, testing. 1-2-3, testing. Workday Financials end-to-end testing process continues to evolve and a diverse set of scenarios are being run to replicate real-user experiences. Catching issues now will ensure a smoother go-live experience in July. Visit the Community site here to access testing updates.

Foundation Data Model (FDM) Mapping: Schools and units continue mapping, meeting regularly in their pod groups. To keep everyone apprised, the FST Team updates the FDM Resource page. Visit the Community site here to learn more and access FDM FAQs.

SRN Update: The System Remediation Network (SRN) continues to assess system-specific impacts and complete any necessary changes required to non-Workday systems to successfully integrate with Workday Financials. Read the latest update on the blog.

Decision Documentation Available in the Community

The FST team is constantly looking for new ways to keep stakeholders better informed. For RAPID decisions, the project team has created the FST Decision Log and provides consistent decision updates in the Community. In addition to those resources, you can now also find documentation explaining how the project team and stakeholders made each major decision.

These documents, and a general explanation of the RAPID decision-making process, have been posted on the Community. Visit the page here and stay in the know.
